

Please join the ladies and gentlemen of The Elegant Arts Society for a weekend of the delightful dances of the era of Jane Austen, Napoleon, Nelson, Lord Byron, and Beau Brummell!

Saturday afternoon, we will offer a special pre-ball preparation workshop during which Susan de Guardiola will teach the steps and figures needed for the evening's ball, including country dances, waltz and sauteuse, and both the First and Caledonian sets of quadrilles.

Saturday evening, enjoy the fine music of Spare Parts and the Susan's calling at our formal Assembly. Scrumptious refreshments (including syllabub and salamagundy) will be served at the breaks. The ball is not gender balanced.

Sunday, join us for a relaxing afternoon of whist, piquet, loo, spillikins, and other Regency parlor card and other games. Tea and light refreshments will be served. Prior to the gaming party, weather permitting, we will have a brief stroll and photo sessions in beautiful neighboring Edgerton Park.
